2. Some of the highlights of AAA committee are as follows
 - Innovative practices adopted by the examination section in the process of conducting, evaluating, announcement of results and security features incorporated in the marks cards and degree certificates deserve appreciation.
 - The faculty members are active in research and have published papers in journals with high impact factor which has helped the university to gain high h-index of 38.

- Though large percentage (80%) of students come from rural areas, a large number of students in all the departments have cleared CSIR-UGC JRF/NET/SET examinations.
- Reaching out to rural farmers and facilitating them with tissue cultured banana plantlets at subsidized rates by the University through LAB TO LAND extension activity is highly commendable
